Mr. Avery, from the committee appointed to superintend the election of Secretary of State, reported that William Hill, Esq. having received a majority of the whole number of votes, is duly elected ; which was concurred in.

Mr. Young introduced the following resolution :

Resolved, That a Select Committee be appointed to enquire in what manner the Capitol Square should be enclosed and what would be the probable cost of the same, and that they report by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Francis moved to amend the same by adding thereto:

That said committee be further instructed to inquire what would be the probable expense of repairing and fitting up the old office of the Secretary of State, for the Supreme Court, Library and Clerks Office belonging to the same, and that they report accordingly.

Which amendment prevailed.

The resolution as amended was then adopted.

Mr. Francis afterwards moved to reconsider the vote upon said resolution, which was agreed to ; and thereupon, he withdrew his amendment.

The resolution as introduced by Mr. Young, was then adopted, and Messrs. Young, Bower, Cardwell, Stowe and Halsey, appointed said committee by the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Biggs,

Ordered, That the report of the Public Treasurer, and the reports of the Comptroller, for the years 1841 and 1842, be referred to the committee on Finance, and that the re-
